EmploysurePLUS

Sometimes your business may need a little more care.

The EmploysurePLUS team provides:

- Face to face support with a specialist consultant to assist with issues such as disciplinary meetings, grievance investigations and redundancy meetings.
- In-house training for your employees and management team on workplace best practice.
- Additional health and safety visits for businesses that require reviews across multiple locations.

Employsure is one of those rare businesses that can actually deliver on their promise to support you. The peace of mind I now have from using their services and taking their advice is worth every dollar we have spent on it.
