

2022 Roche Series

2022 Roche Race to Sydney – Factsheet

The Roche Race to Sydney Series is designed for the best players in the state to compete against each other to not only improve their rating, but to win the chance to compete at the 2023 ATP Cup alongside the best players in the World.

Rounds of the Roche Race to Sydney will be taken to regions across the state to give players the chance to earn the right to be crowned the champion in the Final, to be played at the 2023 ATP Cup. There will be separate Men's and Women's Draws for these events. Male players will need a minimum UTR of 8.00 to enter. Female players will need a minimum UTR of 7.00 to enter.

Players must be 15 years of age or older to compete.

Dates:

February 4 South West, Wagga Wagga

February 25 Northumberland, Gosford

March 18 North West, Inverell

April 1 Tennis World Metro Sydney

September 2

September 9

December 2

TBC North East, South East, Central West

Draw Type: 32 Player Compass Draw, played out to position, guaranteeing players up to 5 matches over the weekend.

Format of Play: Best of 2 tiebreak sets, plus a match tiebreak. Short deuce to be played.

Entry Fee Per Player: $90.00

Entries close: 7 days prior to the scheduled event starting date

Main Draw: Released 3 days prior to main draw beginning

Prizemoney:

| | Men's Prizemoney | Women's Prize Money |
|----------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------|
| Winner | $1,000 | $1,000 |
| Finalist | $500 | $500 |
| Semi-Finalist | $125 | $125 |

Points Allocation:

At the conclusion of the rounds, the top 16 players in each gender will be invited to the finals, to be played at the ATP Cup.

Players must have played 3 events to be eligible for the Final.

| | Points |
|--|---------------|
| Winner | 100 |
| Runner-Up | 60 |
| 3rd Place | 40 |
| 4th Place | 30 |
| 5th Place | 20 |
| 6th Place | 18 |
| 7th Place | 16 |
| 8th Place | 14 |
| 9th – 16th Place | 8 |
| 17th – 32nd Place | 5 |